Take a picture walk.
What do you notice?
What are you curious about?

3

2

Read the story together.

Ask one or two simple questions to make sure the plot details are clear. Then, ask questions that will help children relate the ideas in a story to themselves. You're helping to build imagination, empathy, critical thinking, and creativity.

- ★ What would you do in this situation?
- ★ Has this ever happened to you?
- ★ What would happen if?
